RE: Application for Insurance Producer License

Dear Mr. Haan,

This letter is to notify you that your application for licensure as a nonresident insurance producer in South Dakota has been denied. The reason for the denial is as follows:

On October 30, 2020, you submitted to the South Dakota Division of Insurance ("Division") an application for a nonresident insurance producer license. You answered "yes" to having been charged with or convicted of a misdemeanor, "yes" to having been charged with or convicted of a felony, "no" to having been the subject of an administrative action, and "yes" to having a child support obligation. The Division conducted an investigation that revealed convictions for a 2009 felony for Strangulation and Suffocation, a 2010 felony for Second Degree Sexual Assault, two 2012 felonies for Second Degree Sexual Assault, a 2012 felony for Reckless Endangerment, a 2013 felony for Bail Jumping, a 2013 misdemeanor for violating a Domestic Abuse Injunction, a 2014 misdemeanor Operating while Intoxicated, and a 2019 misdemeanor Operating while Intoxicated Second Offense. All of these criminal convictions occurred in Wisconsin. The Division also discovered that you were the subject of a 2020 Wisconsin Administrative Action where your license application was denied and you were issued a probationary license. The Division also verified that you have a child support obligation, $348.00 of which was outstanding as of June 1, 2020.

Based on the above information, your application is denied under SDCL § 58-30-167(1), (2), (3), (6), (8), (9), and (13), and SDCL § 58-30-159(1) for providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete, or materially untrue information on your license application, violating the insurance laws of another state, attempting to obtain a license through misrepresentation or fraud, having been convicted of a felony, using fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices, or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness, or financial irresponsibility in the conduct of business in this state or elsewhere, having an insurance producer license denied in another state, failing to comply with a court ordered child support obligation, and not being licensed in good standing with a full producer's license in your home state.

Please note that this denial is considered an administrative action which will be reported to the database maintained by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. If an administrative action occurs, an insurance producer may be required to report the action to any and all states in which an insurance license is held and in accordance with the timeframes and requirements of each state.

DIVISION OF INSURANCE

Tel: 605.773.3563 | Fax: 605.773.5369 | dlr.sd.gov/Insurance

Pursuant to SDCL § 58-30-168, you may make a written request to the Division of Insurance within thirty (30) days of the date of this denial for a hearing to determine the reasonableness of this decision to deny your application for licensure.

Sincerely,

Maggie Dell
