

South Dakota Career Peeks

Human Services

Social workers try to help people make their lives better. Some work with schools, children or families. Others work with hospitals and patients. They talk to people about their lives and problems. They find places that can help people.

Write or draw something you need help with.

Who helps you?

Take a  peek

at what you can become!

