Outreach services now available to veterans through Career Center

SPEARFISH, S.D. – The South Dakota Department of Labor’s Northern Hills Career Center will now have a readjustment counselor from the Rapid City Vet Center available to assist veterans, their families and significant others. These services will be provided the first Wednesday of every month from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Career Center, located at 1300 North Avenue in Spearfish.

Readjustment counselor Teresa Graber, licensed clinical social worker, will provide readjustment counseling for military trauma and combat veterans. General counseling; marital and family counseling; referral for benefits assistance; substance abuse information and referral; sexual trauma counseling; community education; and liaison with community agencies will also be provided.

All services are confidential and provided at no charge to the veteran. For more information, contact Teresa Graber at 605-348-0077. Additional information on Career Center services can be found at www.sdjobs.org.
