Labor Department offers assistance to Hutchinson Technology employees

PIERRE, S.D. – The South Dakota Department of Labor is offering services to the approximately 90 Hutchinson Technology employees affected by the June 8 layoff. Rapid Response meetings will be conducted on Monday, June 11, at 8:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Sioux Falls Career Center located at 811 East 10th Street.

Information will be provided on available workforce services such as assistance in locating other employment opportunities, applying for unemployment insurance, receiving additional education or training opportunities, and refining job search skills such as interviews, resumes and cover letters. Additional programs and services are found at www.sdjobs.org.

For more information, contact the Sioux Falls Career Center at 605.367.5300.
