Labor Department launches new Web site

PIERRE, S.D. – The South Dakota Department of Labor (SDDOL) has launched a new Web site at www.sdjobs.org. Enhancements include an A-Z index search, more organized navigation, news releases, publications and faster load times.

“I am very excited about the improvements within this site,” said Secretary of Labor Pam Roberts. “We aim to provide quality customer service, and I am confident our customers will find this more user-friendly and helpful.”

SDDOL can help businesses with employment-related solutions and assist people with job placement and career transition services. Information on all of these programs is available on the new Web site. For assistance in locating items, please contact the SDDOL webmaster, Melodee Lane, at 605.626.2314.
