Watertown DOL employee recognized for 30 years of service

PIERRE, S.D. – Marsha Dahl with the Department of Labor (DOL) was recently honored by the State of South Dakota for 30 years of service with the Watertown DOL office as an employment service assistant.

Dahl started employment on August 28, 1979, and has the longest longevity of all the Watertown DOL staff.

As an employment service assistant, Dahl is responsible for giving proficiency tests, helping clients with computers and the resource room, setting up appointments, scheduling rooms and keeping the office organized.

“Marsha is the perfect person to have on the front-line in our office because she can multi-task with ease,” said Sue Bogen, Watertown DOL office manager. “She always has a positive attitude and a smile in her voice.”

Dahl says the favorite part of her job is making sure all the different customers visiting the office are treated professionally and feel comfortable.

The Watertown DOL office is located at 2001 9th Avenue Southwest. The mission of DOL is to enhance the South Dakota workforce by providing businesses with employment-related solutions and helping people with job placement and career transition services.
