Labor Department Offering Workforce Knowledge Sessions for Businesses and Organizations

PIERRE, S.D. – The Department of Labor and Regulation is offering two free Workforce Knowledge Series for businesses and organizations via Microsoft Teams.

The first session topic is “Virtual Job Fairs” which will be held on Tuesday, May 14 at 11:30 a.m. CDT. Glen Bressalmo with Premier Virtual will explain how a virtual job fair connects employers and job seekers in real time through live chat, video interviews, and more and how this type of hiring event can be valuable in recruitment efforts.

The second session is called “Fill Workforce Needs with Help from Freedom Works Here,” and will take place on Thursday, May 16, at 11:30 a.m. CDT. This out-of-state workforce recruitment campaign has successfully connected hardworking individuals to South Dakota employers.

Advanced registration is required for both events by clicking the Register Now button on the Event Calendar Entry. Registrants will be prompted to enter a mySD single sign-on credential. An invitation with a link to the Microsoft Teams session and a separate calendar invite will be emailed.

The goal of the Workforce Knowledge Series is to share DLR’s knowledge on a variety of employment topics to assist with recruitment and hiring challenges. Contact a Job Service office for further details or with questions.
