

GED[®] credential

General Educational Development

GED[®] completers are prepared to succeed in the workforce. During the recruitment and hiring process, remember the value of this credential.

THE TEST

Aligned with national college and career readiness standards for adult education.

Four subtests cover skill sets employers want employees to have or be able to acquire.

Those who earn a GED[®] credential demonstrate measurable levels of understanding of these subjects.

PASSING THE GED

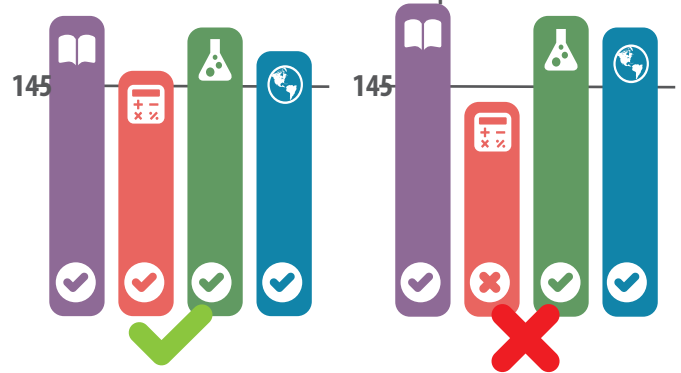

70% of high school graduates would pass based on the most recent pass score levels.

6 months

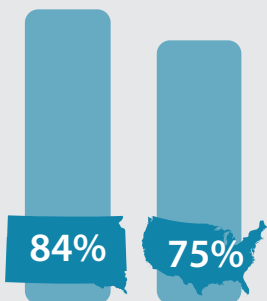

Takes an average of six months for South Dakotans to obtain.

Must score a minimum of 145 out of 200 on each subtest to pass.

SOUTH DAKOTA ABOVE AVERAGE

2020 Pass Rate

SD universe: 763 test takers

Percentage of Tests College Ready

"Grads report high job satisfaction with employment they obtain after earning their GED[®] . . . the critical thinking skills they develop through the GED[®] program better prepare them for today's job market."

(ged.com/educators_admins/program/workforce-development)

