

YOUTH ELIGIBILITY

All WIOA Title I Youth participants will also be enrolled in the Wagner-Peyser Title III program. Many Title I Youth over the age of 18 will be enrolled in the Title I Adult program as the enrollment process identified below will trigger participation.

ENROLLMENT

Before becoming a WIOA Title I Youth participant an individual must complete:

1. Eligibility determination and documentation verification as an In-School Youth or Out-of-School Youth.
2. Objective Assessment (see Assessment Policy 4.9 for definition and guidance).
3. Development of the Employment Plan (see Employment Plan Policy 4.11).
4. A triggering Title I Youth service (see Services Chart Resource 1 for a list of triggering youth services)

PARTICIPATION

Once an individual has completed the enrollment process, they are now a participant of the youth program and will be included in the youth performance measures. No fiscal services are available for an individual until after they become a participant.

REFERRAL

Regardless of eligibility for the Youth Program, an individual may be eligible for other program services through the One-Stop system. Referrals to other One-Stop partners and providers must be offered to assist individuals with further assessment, training, and educational needs. Refer to One-Stop System Policy 3.2 for a list of core programs and partners.

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN CONSENT

Release of Information

A parent/guardian signature is required on the Release of Information Form 1 for applicants under the age of 18 in order to provide financial services.

Low Income

If Low Income status is verified by the Family Income Worksheet Resource 21 for an applicant under the age of 18, a parent/guardian must provide their signature anywhere on the document.

Wagner Peyser and Title I Application

All participants under the age of 18 must have the Wagner Peyser and Title I Youth Applications signed by the participant, a parent/guardian, and a DLR staff member.

Signature Request

Parent/Guardian signatures are requested on Equal Opportunity Form 2, but not required.

Signature Exception

If an exception is deemed appropriate for applicants who are unable to produce the parent/guardian signature, the requirement may be waived by a Labor Program Specialist. Justification must be documented in case notes.

SCHOOL STATUS

School status is based on the individual's status at the time eligibility is determined and program enrollment is complete. School status does not change through the participation period. For example: if a student is an Out-of-School Youth, but returns to school, they remain an Out-of-School Youth.

ATTENDING SCHOOL

YOUTH ELIGIBILITY DATA VALIDATION

Many youth eligibility data elements allow self-attestation as an acceptable source of documentation. Best practice when self-attestation is an option is to ask if another type of documentation is available. If one is not, self-attestation may be used. I-9 documents required for employment will then be obtained with the help of employment specialists after WIOA enrollment.
