Dear Mr. Daggett and Members of the Nominating Committee:

Re: Support for Nomination of Dr. Carlos E. Johnson, CPA
for NASBA Vice-Chair

At its January 6, 2012 meeting, the Hawaii Board of Public Accountancy unanimously voted to support the nomination of Dr. Carlos E. Johnson, CPA, for Vice Chair of NASBA's Board of Directors for the 2012-2013 year.

Dr. Johnson has demonstrated the leadership qualities and consensus-building skills critical for this leadership position in NASBA. The depth and diversity of his career-spanning involvement in professional, regulatory, and community endeavors and initiatives speak to these qualities.

The Hawaii Board believes that Dr. Johnson's comprehensive background, professional experience, and commitment to the enhancement of the public accounting profession in concert with public protection distinctly qualify him for this leadership position. In addition, he is personable and takes the time to talk to us to understand the issues before us.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide our comments.

Sincerely,

Thomas T. Ueno
Chairperson

Re: Nomination of Mr. Walter Davenport, CPA for NASBA Vice-Chair 2012-2013

Dear Mr. Daggett and Members of the Nominating Committee:

During their January 13 meeting the members of the Kentucky State Board of Accountancy voted unanimously to recommend Mr. Walter Davenport, CPA for the position of NASBA Vice-Chair for 2012-2013.

Over the years as a member of the North Carolina State Board of Accountancy and through positions held at NASBA, Mr. Davenport always exhibited his desire and commitment to improve the profession and NASBA. Therefore the members of the Kentucky State Board of Accountancy believe he is an excellent candidate for the position of Vice-Chair.

Sincerely,
