Re: Application for South Dakota Insurance Producer License

Dear Mr. Lamchick:

This letter is to notify you that your application for licensure as a nonresident insurance producer in South Dakota has been denied. The reason for the denial is as follows:

You submitted an application for an individual nonresident insurance producer license to the South Dakota Division of Insurance ("Division") on August 30, 2012. On your answer to the application question concerning administrative actions taken against you, you answered "No." On August 31, 2012, you uploaded a statement to the NIPR Warehouse saying you had answered the administrative actions question "No" by mistake and that you had been subject to a 2012 Florida administrative action. The 2012 action was for solicitation without an appointment, placed your license on probation, and ordered a $1,500 monetary penalty. A copy of the action was not provided in your explanation.

The Division wrote to you on September 6, 2012 to provide documentation concerning the 2012 Florida administrative action. To date, there has been no response from you.

Based on the above information, your application is denied based upon SDCL § 58-30-167(1), (2), and (8) for incompleteness, violating another state's insurance laws, and using fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices, or demonstrating incompetence, or untrustworthiness in the conduct of business in another state.

Please note that this denial is considered an administrative action which will be reported to the database maintained by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. If an administrative action occurs, an insurance producer may be required to report the action to any and all states in which an insurance license is held and in accordance with the timeframes and requirements of each state.

Pursuant to SDCL § 58-30-168, you may make a written request to the Division of Insurance within thirty (30) days of the date of this denial for a hearing to determine the reasonableness of this decision to deny your application for licensure.

Sincerely,

Wendell Malsam
Assistant Director - Financial & Licensing
South Dakota Division of Insurance
