RE: Application for Insurance Producer License/Denial

This letter is to notify you that your application for licensure as a resident insurance producer in South Dakota has been denied. The reason for the denial is as follows:

You submitted an application for an individual resident insurance producer license to the South Dakota Division of Insurance (“Division”) on February 7, 2022. In your application, you answered “YES” to question 7, indicating you have a child support arrearage and are 24 months behind on your child support payments.

Due to child support arrearage, the Division attempted to contact you to notify you that you would need to make arrangements with the Department of Social Services to establish a payment plan. On May 16, 2022, the Division wrote to you via email, informing you that arrangements needed to be made with DSS. Having failed to receive a response, on June 10, 2022, the Division wrote to you again via certified mail, informing you that your application could not be processed unless you established a payment plan with DSS. Having again failed to receive a response, on July 12, 2022, the Division spoke to you via telephone, and advised you that you had 5 days to establish a payment plan with DSS or your application would be denied. To date, no response has been received.

Based on the above information and based upon SDCL §§58-30-167(2), & (13) and 25-7A-56, your application has been denied for failing to comply with an administrative or court order imposing a child support obligation.

Please note this denial is considered an administrative action which will be reported to the database maintained by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. If an administrative action occurs, an insurance producer may be required to report the action to all states in which an insurance license is held and in accordance with the timeframes and requirements of each state.

Pursuant to SDCL § 58-30-168, you may make a written request to the Division of Insurance within thirty (30) days of the date of this denial for a hearing to determine the reasonableness of this decision to deny your application for licensure.

Sincerely,

Tony Dorschner
Assistant Director
South Dakota Division of Insurance
Department of Labor and Regulation
