

South Dakota Career Peeks

Law, Public Safety,
Corrections & Security

Lawyers help people with laws. Some speak in courtrooms. Some write wills, leases or contracts. Some lawyers defend people or companies in court. If people break the law, some lawyers try to send them to jail. They study the law for many years.

Lawyers read and write a lot. Write the missing word in the sentences.

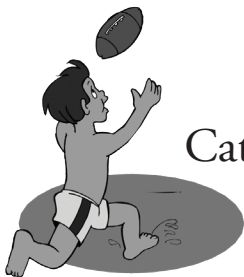

She walks to the park.

She                      Eggs                      Ready

Can we go to the lake?

jumps                      lake                      now

Catch that ball!

think                      ball                      nine

The book is about a panda.

sleepy                      panda                      won

Take a  peek

at what you can become!

