

South Dakota Career Peeks

Architecture &
Construction Cluster

Operating Engineers drive or control heavy machines used to build roads, bridges, buildings and other structures. They dig and move dirt, build structures, and pour concrete and pavement. They also repair and maintain equipment.

Color and count. Color the odd numbers yellow and the even numbers grey to make a picture.

Take a  peek

at what you can become!

