Insurance Sales Agents sell different types of insurance. People buy insurance to protect what they have if bad things happen. For example, people insure their vehicles. If they have an accident, they can get it fixed or buy a different one. These agents explain to customers what types of loss would be covered by insurance. They also teach customers safety tips to help them avoid loss.

Safety precautions help prevent bad things from happening. Check off the things below you do to be safe.

- Wear my seat belt whenever I ride in a vehicle.
- I know how to dial 9-1-1 if there is an emergency.
- I know my full name, phone number and address if I have to ask a police officer or other adult for help.
- My house has smoke detectors.
- If there is a fire at my house, I know the safest way to get outside and where to go.
- Wear my helmet when I ride a bike, board or scooter.
