Labor Dept. to co-host Small Business Workshop

PIERRE, S.D. – The South Dakota Department of Labor (SDDOL) will jointly host a small business workshop on Wed., Sept. 12 with the Department of Revenue and Regulation and Small Business Development Center. Business owners are encouraged to attend this one-day event provided at no charge to learn about available services and programs.

The SDDOL's workforce experts will provide insight into South Dakota's labor and employment laws, the workers' compensation and unemployment insurance systems, and South Dakota Career Center services. Gov. Rounds' workforce development initiative, Dakota Roots, will also be discussed. Dakota Roots, along with SDWORKS, aims to connect current and former South Dakotans who are looking for jobs with employment opportunities.

The workshop will be held in the Kneip Conference Room #3 located at 700 Governors Drive from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. To register, call 1.800.829.9188 or visit <http://www.state.sd.us/drr2/businessstax/seminar/smallbusiness/smallbusiness.htm>. Additional SDDOL and workforce-related information is found at www.sdjobs.org.
