Labor Department Helping Laid Off KPI Workers

PIERRE, S.D. – The Yankton Job Service will hold informational meetings for workers laid off from Kolberg Pioneer, Inc. on Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 3 and 4 p.m. at the State Kanner Building located at 3113 Spruce St. Suite 124.

Staff will help affected workers apply online or by phone for reemployment assistance benefits. Workers should bring: Social Security number, driver's license number or state identification number, and employment history for the last 18 months.

Nearly 800 jobs are listed in the Yankton and Vermillion areas at sdjobs.org.

Services available from the Department of Labor and Regulation include job search assistance, career exploration, workforce training, resume and cover letter writing, and help filling out applications.

For more information, call the Yankton Job Service at 605-668-2900.
