Tour de Yankton July Hiring Event

PIERRE, S.D. – The next “Tour de Yankton” business spotlight and hiring event, featuring Ehresmann Engineering, the Federal Prison Camp, H&R Block, and Kopp Building Innovations, will take place on Wednesday, July 29, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. CDT at the Yankton Job Service, located at 3113 Spruce St.

This free hiring event provides job seekers in the Yankton area an opportunity to connect with local employers, apply for available positions, and potentially participate in on-site interviews. Bring a resume and be prepared to talk about your work experience and career goals.

DLR offers a range of tools to support a successful job search, including guidance on completing applications, preparing for interviews, and building essential soft skills. Call 605-773-3372 for assistance and to learn what to expect at hiring events.

DLR hosts in-person and virtual hiring events to connect job seekers and employers. Employers participating in hiring events benefit from increased visibility, access to a new pool of talent, real-time conversations with potential hires, and time and resource savings during the hiring process.

Businesses interested in participating in future events can contact business services specialist Julie Dykstra at 605-668-2905.

This event is a partnership between the Department of Labor and Regulation, Yankton Thrive, and Riverfront Broadcasting. It will be held outdoors and moved indoors in case of inclement weather.
