August Workforce Knowledge Session Focused on Cybersecurity

PIERRE, S.D. – The Department of Labor and Regulation (DLR) is inviting employers to its next Workforce Knowledge Series on cybersecurity, specifically focused on protecting employee data. This free online event takes place Thursday, Aug. 13, 2026, at 11:30 a.m. CDT/10:30 a.m. MDT via Microsoft Teams.

The session highlights the importance of protecting employee data, common cybersecurity threats, essential security practices, the significance of fostering a culture of awareness, key policies and legal responsibilities, incident response, and available protection resources.

The presenter for this session is Tyler Flaagan, Associate Professor at The Beacom College of Computer and Cyber Sciences at Dakota State University (DSU), Director of the Deep Red Lab within DSU MadLabs®, and Senior Technical Mentor for the U.S. Cyber Team.

Registration is required. Visit tinyurl.com/dlr-workshops and select the event calendar listing.

The Workforce Knowledge Series is an ongoing DLR initiative to share expertise on employment topics, providing valuable tools and resources to help businesses address workforce recruitment, retention, and operational challenges.
