

10 Things You Should Know about

Reemployment Assistance

when filing a claim

Reemployment Assistance (RA) provides temporary financial assistance to qualified individuals who have lost their jobs, through no fault of their own, until they find other employment.

1. Accurately report the reason you are unemployed. We will verify this with your employer.
2. Report any and all wages and income you earn to avoid fraud and possible prosecution.
3. Register with the SDWORKS job search database to be eligible for benefits.
4. Be available for work. You must continually verify you are able, available and willing to accept suitable work.
5. Actively search for work, or benefits may be denied.
6. Develop an effective work search plan. Contact a DLR job service office for help with planning an effective work search.
