Dear Ms. Kutz:

As you are aware from the attached prior notification, Rockwell Collins, Inc. ("Company") will permanently eliminate its Ellsworth Air Force Base operations located at 1940 EP Howe, Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota 57706.

This updated notice is to advise you the closure has been postponed from a 14-day period commencing December 31, 2011, and is expected to commence on or about March 31, 2012, and be completed within a 14-day period thereafter. At this time, it is expected the entire facility will be closed, and that this planned action will be permanent. None of the employees affected by these proposed plans is represented by a union. A list of job titles and the number of employees currently holding affected positions accompanies this letter. Affected employees are not entitled to displace or "bump" less senior employees at other locations.

This announcement and the timetable outlined above are based upon the best information currently available. However, various factors may still affect the timing of employment terminations. You will be informed of any significant changes in these plans if additional information becomes available.

This notice is intended to satisfy any notice required by the federal Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act. By giving you this notice, however, the Company is not conceding that this law applies to this action or that notice is otherwise required.

Should you have any questions concerning this announcement, please contact me at 319/295-7515.

Very truly yours,

Patricia Nelson
