WHAT IS A JOB SHADOW?

A job shadow is a worksite experience during which an individual spends time one-on-one with an employee observing daily activities and asking questions about the job and industry. Individuals’ participate before, during and after the job shadow to help them understand and reflect on what is learned at the worksite. The job shadow allows the individual to determine career compatibility and responsibilities.

Specifically, a job shadow helps an individual:

- Begin to identify career interests.
- Observe the daily routine of staff.
- Gain awareness of the academic, technical and personal skills required for career/industry.
- Develop and apply communication skills by interacting with and interviewing staff.
- Understand different jobs have different work environments.
- Begin to understand the connection between school, career paths, life experiences and achieving goals.
- Make contact with potential future employer.

Job shadowing can provide experiences that are as unique as every person who participates. Job shadowing is a privilege and an opportunity that will prepare you for joining the workforce. It’s not every day you have the opportunity to look into your own future!

Workforce Training Rep to Indicate Task Completed
"Hello. My name is _______________.

I am a participant in Department of Labor and Regulation’s training program and I am interested in job shadowing at your business. I am interested in pursuing a career in ____________________ and I am curious to see if this is a logical career decision for myself. Would it be possible for me to shadow you or someone else in your business?"

- Be prepared to explain what you hope to gain from the job shadow experience.
- Have suggested dates and times available that will work for you.
- Discuss your responsibilities and goals as a participant so that the employer does not feel that they will lose productivity time.
- You must call and schedule a time that works best for you and the employer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
If the business is willing to set up the job shadow, thank them and ask the following:

- What time should I arrive? ______________
- What will my hours be? __________________________
- Where should I meet you? __________________________________________________________
- What should I wear? __________________________________________________________________
- Is there a place where I can purchase lunch or should I bring a lunch? _______________________

Let the business know you will be calling a few days ahead of time to confirm the job shadow. If they cannot help you, politely ask “Is there anyone else that you know of in this industry/business that might be able to help me with a job shadow?”
