Veteran Priority of Service

- The definition for priority of service is different than the definition for a qualifying veteran. Under this definition the term "veteran" means a person who served at least one day in the active military, naval, or air service, and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable. Active service includes full-time Federal service in the National Guard or Reserve component. This definition of “active service” does not include full-time duty performed strictly for training purposes (such as weekend or annual training), nor does it include full-time active duty performed by National Guard personnel who are mobilized by State rather than Federal authorities (such as natural disasters).

- Priority of Service means that veterans and eligible spouses are given priority over non-covered persons for the receipt of employment, training, and placement services provided under a qualified job-training program. Priority means that veterans and eligible spouses are entitled to precedence over non-covered persons for services. This means that a veteran or eligible spouse either receives access to a service earlier in time to a non-covered person or, if the resource is limited, the veteran or eligible spouse receives access to the service instead of or before the non-covered person.
- Eligible Spouse for Priority of Service The definition for eligible spouse for priority of service is the same definition used for Eligible Person.

Veteran Friendly: An employer who expresses an interest in hiring Veterans. Employers self-disclose this information and it does not need to be verified. AJC staff must not solicit this information.
