What is the Work Opportunity Tax Credit?

The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) is a federal income tax credit encouraging employers to hire individuals in certain targeted groups which consistently experience high rates of unemployment due to a variety of employment barriers.

The WOTC helps:

- people move from welfare to work.
- people gain on-the-job training experience.
- people prepare for quality jobs.
- to create high performance workplaces.

Tax Savings for Veterans Target Groups:

Target Group 2Ba. Veteran receiving SNAP benefits: Qualified Veteran receiving at least 3 consecutive months of SNAP benefits during the 12 months ending on the hiring date.

- Qualified wages are capped at $6,000 for a maximum tax credit of up to $2,400.

Target Group 2B. Disabled Veteran DV: A veteran discharged from the military in the last 12 months for a service-connected disability.

- Qualified wages are capped at $12,000 for a maximum tax credit of up to $4,800.

Target Group 2C. Disabled Veteran Unemployed for 6 months: A veteran discharged from the military for a service connected disability and has been unemployed for at least 6 months in the 12 months prior to the hire date.

- Qualified wages are capped at $24,000 for a maximum tax credit of up to $9,600.

Target Group 2D. Veteran Unemployed for 4 weeks: A veteran, regardless of discharge date, that has been unemployed for at least 4 weeks but less than 6 months in the 12 months prior to the hiring date.

- Qualified wages are capped at $6,000 for a maximum tax credit of up to $2,400.

Target Group 2E. Veteran Unemployed for 6 months: A veteran, regardless of discharge date, that has been unemployed for at least 6 months in the 12 months prior to the hiring date.

- Qualified wages are capped at $14,000 for a maximum tax credit of up to $5,600.

Tax Savings for Target Group 9. Long-Term TANF Recipient

The tax credit applies to the first 2 years of employment and is considered a two-tiered tax credit. The wage is capped at the first $10,000 of qualified wages in each year. Maximum credit over the 2 years is $9,000 per new hire.

The first year of employment, the maximum credit is $4,000 for full credit (40 percent of the wage cap) and requires the new employee to work at least 400 hours for the employer.

The second year of employment, the maximum credit is $5,000 or 50 percent of $10,000, and up to $5,000 when the new employee has worked a minimum of 400 hours or more for the new employer
